Audience comments on tonight's agenda:

Jim Barnick, 203 Adams Ct.: Stated it is ironic that the Landfill hearing is the same day as the primary election.

Lukasewicz asked that Attorney Cimini call them.

Attorney Cimini said he did call and they said it was that night.

Barnick said that the school should be notified.

Lukasewicz put a motion on to request another hearing.

Attorney Cimini informed that this isn't the public hearing it is just an information session for municipalities. Also stated that the application has not been accepted or approved yet.

Barnick also questioned recycling grant money.

Lukasewicz stated that it was the Comcast Franchise money we received.

Robert Kalinoski added that if it was bigger amounts it was for recycling equipment.

Barnick asked if the DEP hearing is for public comment.

Lukasewicz replied that it is for DEP to tell us the process.

Dave Karr added that we should be doing more with recycling. We are filling the landfill with recycling.

Barnick added that all the out of state garbage that comes here - they don't recycle.
