1. Motion by Mellody

Seconded by Barone

To accept the proposal from Joyce, Jackman & Bell Insurance for a total of $98,646.00 for the total package of the insurance coverage for the Borough of Throop.

On question:

Barnick-I don't agree with it but we have to have it, so.

Lukasewicz-I'm not happy with it either but we're...

Chrzan-I talked to an attorney and he said he thinks we should notify the Attorney General, said it won't be a bad idea.

Barnick-There is in Pennsylvania the Insurance Commission, did you talk to them at all, Lou?

Cimini-Yeah, this whole thing is going to take a long time, plus it's all on notice. The whole issue is they're going to say they gave us notice. We're going to say they didn't give us notice, and that's the whole issue. And here all we have to do is say okay, you gave us the notice? Well we didn't (inaudible) thirty days cancellation notice.

Barnick-But at the same time they're trying to recoup everything in one year.

Cimini-Well, that's.....I mean.....

Elaine Morrell-This is not the company, Jim.

Chrzan-It all goes back to St. Paul. What did that attorney tell us....he said St. Paul is the only one that really insure (inaudible) it's got to them anyway.

Morrell-I didn't know that.

Chrzan-That's why you need to call the Attorney General.

A long discussion took place regarding the insurance, everyone spoke at once.

All in favor

Motion carried

Discussion:

Attorney Cimini-PAL meeting (Tues., Oct. 2) he attended at the Civic Center. PAL would be looking for permission to use the Civic Center in the future and would not interfere or duplicate with any Civic Center programs. Council mentioned the program to be exclusively for Throop residents, if otherwise, they should be notified. The weight program (room) would be used for Throop Police Officers. Also discussed, planning and running programs (what type), insurance (PAL to insure themselves and programs). Attorney Peters was volunteering his time as the PAL attorney and PAL would be coming up with objectives and a mission statement.

Audience Comments:

MaryAnne Richardson, Moosic-Discussed subpoena received from lawsuit with regard to Marjol and she should contact Attorney Blazey.

The meeting was adjourned.

Elaine Morrell, Administrator/Secretary
